NOTICE

NAV CANADA proposes to implement the following effective January 1, 2002:

“Where an aircraft operator has overdue charges owed to NAV CANADA or where NAV CANADA, acting reasonably and in good faith, is of the opinion that NAV CANADA charges will not be paid when due, NAV CANADA shall have the right, on 24 hours’ notice to the operator, to terminate or reduce (withhold) its services, except in an emergency situation, until such time as applicable charges have been paid or until such time as credit security arrangements have been made by the operator in a form and substance satisfactory to NAV CANADA.

Notice, as described in the above preceding paragraph, shall be sent by registered mail or by electronic means, and will be considered to have been received (a) in the case of electronic means, on actual receipt and (b) in the case of registered mail, on the date of delivery.”

Pursuant to Section 15 of the Civil Air Navigation Services Commercialization Act, S.C. 1996, c.20 (the “ANS Act”), civil air navigation service users must be notified to provide them with an opportunity to comment on proposed changes if the NAV CANADA Board of Directors determines that a service change proposal is likely to affect a significant group of users in a material way. The Board has determined that in this case the proposed changes do represent a material change. Any person interested in making representations to NAV CANADA with regard to this proposal may do so in writing no later than Monday, December 17, 2001 to the following address:
